Dear Mr. Colby:

The Naval Officers' Wives Club of Washington is an organization of almost 1,000 women who are wives of commissioned officers in the Navy and Marine Corps, commissioned women of these services, widows of career officers or wives of foreign naval officers on duty in the capital. It is a diverse and alert group interested in "What's Happening". The Club is dedicated to helping Navy newcomers to this area discover the exciting opportunities which abound in Washington.

Since the NOW Club has only three social functions each year, an effort is made to make each one very special. Several of our members and their husbands heard your speech at the War College last week. They were so impressed they have asked that I invite you to be the guest speaker at a luncheon to be held on November 4, 1975 at the Army Navy Country Club. I am sure a capacity crowd would gather to hear you and we would feel very fortunate if you could join us.

I would like to announce the speaker for this luncheon in the first issue of the Newsletter which is sent to all ladies in the area who are eligible for membership. If you can accept our invitation before July 14th, I will be able to meet a publication deadline for this issue.

Very sincerely,

Catherine C. Rasmussen
